Fall Assembly

Last year, peacemakers from around the globe met at the Vatican to discuss Gospel Nonviolence, Just War and Just Peace. One outcome of their meeting was the Catholic Nonviolence Initiative. This year, PCMNY offers an update on the Catholic Nonviolence Initiative with our Fall Assembly, Choosing Gospel Nonviolence in a Time of Terror and Turmoil. Join us at Manhattan College on Saturday, November 4th from 10 AM to 4 PM. Judy Coode of the Catholic Nonviolence Initiative and Robert Brimlow, philosopher and author of What about Hitler? will be our speakers. Register now through October 25th.

Human Rights/Holy Innocents Event

This year's event will feature three short films from Brave New Films, "Home is a Human Right: A Series on Immigration." Sr. Mary Beth Moore, SC, Assistant Coordinator of Centro Corazon de Maria on eastern Long Island, which serves the immigrant population there, and Mario Russell, Director of Catholic Charities Immigrant and Refugee Services in the Archdiocese of NY, will facilitate discussion. Date: December 10th. Time: 2:30-4:30 PM. Location: TBA.

Peacemaking through the Arts, 2018

On Sunday afternoon, January 28th, 2018, we will be hosting the internationally acclaimed folk band Windborne whose music spans many continents and cultures, but is deeply rooted in American folk singing traditions and promotes social action. You can get a taste of their beautiful harmony at <http://www.windbornesingers.com/>. Location: Casserly Hall, St. Joseph's Church, Greenwich Village, NY. Time: 3:00-5:00 PM. More details to come toward the end of 2017.

Ash Wednesday, 2018

Our tradition on Ash Wednesday is to offer a Lenten Reflection to the faithful outside St. Patrick's Cathedral. Join us on February 14th at noon for our 2018 witness.

Retreat, 2018

Plan to join us at the Maryknoll Sisters Center from March 2nd to 4th when Mary Anne Muller will be our retreat leader. Mary Anne is one of our 2017 Peacemaker Honorees, a staunch advocate and teacher of peace and justice with expertise in scripture, especially the Book of Isaiah. You will surely be inspired.

Good Friday Way of the Cross, 2018

PCMNY is probably best known for its Good Friday Way of the Cross, which was its founding event. Commemorating Jesus' suffering in His own life and in the lives of people throughout the world today, hundreds process together, praying for change in ourselves and a society marred by such sins as poverty, racism, bullying and gun violence, human trafficking and war.

Concluding with a 15th Station, we are reminded that we are a Resurrection people in a Good Friday world. The 2018 Good Friday Way of the Cross will take place on March 30th starting at 8:30 AM at Dag Hammarskjold Plaza. We hope you will walk and pray with us.

Peacemaker Awards Reception, 2018

Each year PCMNY honors peacemakers, some known nationally, some known locally, and some known mostly within the Pax Christi community, but all doing noteworthy work to make the world a more peaceful and just place for all of us to live. Our Reception to honor these exemplary people is a true celebration of them and the peace community that supports them. Stay tuned for our 2018 honorees and the time and place for the Reception which will be on Sunday, June 3rd.
